

A Western Red Cedar log is milled on the headrig at Mary's River Lumber.

Above, cedar slabs are evaluated and selected for various patterns and products .

Boards are precision end trimmed.

Above, Western Red Cedar boards are graded for use in the manufacture of Mary's River's myriad of siding, panel and fascia products..

The mark of responsible forestry

Depends on log availability.

Member of the North American Wholesale Lumber Association

Pacific Lumber Exporter Association

