

The Best Natural Red Cedar Decking Just Got Better...

MARY'S RIVER

DECK

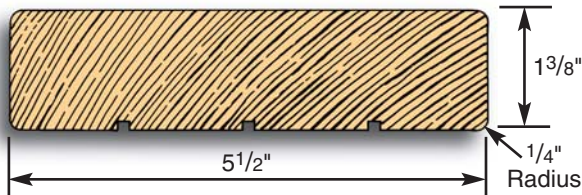

Introducing Mary's River Deck, a new decking product from Mary's River Lumber, America's leading producer of Western Red Cedar. This low profile and wide-radius edged decking, milled from solid-sawn Western Red Cedar, makes an unsurpassed statement of quality and beauty for today's creatively designed outdoor living applications. Mary's River Deck is a 1 3/8" x 6" decking with 1/4" radius edges to achieve the architectural look that current home builders and buyers are seeking.

Specifications

- Graded – Select Dex and #2 and Btr (No Hole)
- 1 3/8" x 3 1/2" (2 x 4 Nominal), 1 3/8" x 5 1/2" (2 x 6 Nominal)
- Tally – 6' to 20' ELO
- Moisture – Green, KD available upon request
- Visually graded for an exceptional face.
- Back is kerfed to relieve stress from uneven moisture absorption, resisting cupping.
- Natural Western Red Cedar has unmatched beauty, stability, durability, and weather resistance, with minimum tendency to shrink, swell, cup, twist or warp, even under the most extreme weather conditions. Red Cedar is twice as stable as other softwood species. Its natural oils are resistant to insects and decay, which eliminates the hazards of chemical preservatives necessary with other wood sources.

Only Real Red Cedar Has the Natural Grain and Rich Texture Offered in Mary's River Deck.
